

ABOUT US

The mission of the FHC PAC is to support FHCA members by providing contributions and education to legislators and political candidates who promote the value and needs of the long term care community in Florida.

The FHC PAC is a critical part of the political arm of Florida Health Care Association, helping members build relationships and educate current and future policy makers about long term care in Florida. The FHC PAC acts on behalf of FHCA members by supporting political candidates who take time to learn about long term care and promote policies that enhance the lives of residents and caregivers.

FHCA is available to answer your FHC PAC questions. We can also assist with arranging a tour of your center with local legislators/candidates or confirming your Lobby Wednesday participation. Contact us today at info@fhcpac.org.

YOUR VOICE COUNTS

Policy makers need to hear from the long term care community. It is your voice that matters, your voice that changes opinions and your voice that moves legislators to support our long term care priorities. Legislators consider you their experts in the field, and we depend on you as part of our advocacy efforts to educate lawmakers on the issues you face every day.

"The FHC PAC has become a strong advocate for our state's seniors. Their powerful voice in Tallahassee is exactly what the long term care profession needs at this critical time in our state."
- Anita Faulmann, FHC PAC Chair

"Successful advocacy includes legislative strategies, grassroots involvement and a strong public affairs effort. When members support the FHC PAC, we have strength in numbers which enables us to combine these approaches to truly advance the advocacy agenda of Florida's long term care providers."
- John Simmons, Avante at Jacksonville Beach
